Please take note: BHS does not give students (or parents) official transcripts or recommendations, not even in sealed envelopes. BHS sends transcripts electronically through www.parchment.com. See detailed instructions on the BHS counseling website. Contact the counseling office if you encounter difficulties.

Once a student graduates from high school (or turns 18), only the student can release their information. Parents requesting diplomas, or other official forms etc. must have written permission from the student.
