Periods 1-3-5

STUDENTS

1. Congratulations to the winners of the Chili Cook Off! Second period winners were Are-Beez. Third period winners were Mad Mama Chili and Cha Cha Chili. And Garden Fiesta took the prize for 4th period. Many thanks to all the cooks!
2. Art Club is taking submissions for the next Marge Williams show. Take any and all art to Room 112. Thanks.
3. Are you interested in carrying on the Spartan News legacy next year? What about the creative process, script writing, camera operating, location sound, and post-production? The Spartan News team has an internship beginning next semester for all interested students. Visit <http://bit.ly/2i6ziCM> for more information.
4. Interested in attending the Kitsap County Human Rights Conference? It will be a day at Olympic College with speakers and workshops about implicit bias within our community, and what we can do about it. It has been rescheduled for Friday, Feb. 3rd. Please contact Shulman or DeGuzman ASAP if you would like to join us!
5. The 'Boxes of Soxes' sock drive by Social Justice League is on! This sock drive is a district-wide effort to provide socks for the homeless in Seattle. Our goal is to collect 1,500 pairs of clean socks, used or new, in the next three weeks. Please put them in the box under the stairs in the 200 building. Thanks.
6. The AMC test will be given during 2nd period on Wednesday, Feb. 15th. The AMC is a nationwide math competition open to 9-12th graders. It's fun and challenging – math geniuses may be discovered – and it could be you! Please pay $5.00 to Ms. Spray by THIS FRIDAY, January 13th.
7. The Interact Club meets Friday, January 13 at 3 p.m. in the BHS library. RYLA (Rotary Youth Leadership Awards) is a Rotary sponsored program that offers an intensive leadership training and workshop. The program has been carefully designed to provide basic leadership training and experience for young people from Western Washington and Canada. Rotary is seeking high school sophomores or juniors for this leadership opportunity. To learn more, please attend the Interact Club meeting this Friday at 3 p.m.
8. Student Rights Rally in Olympia!! January 16 – MLK Day – 9:30am – meet at 7:00am at Woodward for carpool. Advocate for the State to fully fund public education. We need student representation to show its importance to students.
9. UPCOMING SERVICE ACADEMY INFORMATION NIGHTS: ATTENTION ALL 9th, 10th, and 11th graders (and your parents): Thursday, February 2, from 6:45-8:45 PM – College ROTC/Academy Night, Central Kitsap High School Theater, 3700 NW Anderson Hill Road.
